REPORT

NAME OF THE REPORT : "Anti-Ragging Awareness".

DATE : 11/11/2022

CHIEF GUEST : Mr. Dr.P.Aravinda Reddy,
Associate Professor,
Department of Pharmaceutical Chemistry,
SCOP.

Samskruti College of Pharmacy for Women organized an "Anti- Ragging Awareness" program for the academic year 2022-23. Mr. Dr.P.Aravinda Reddy, Associate Professor, Department of Pharmaceutical Chemistry, was the speaker. He outlined the consequences of ragging. In his address explained various forms of Ragging. Ragging in educational institutions. and its adverse effects on lives of students. He emphasized that the students should be aware that ragging in any forms- Verbal, Gestures, Physical, is a punishable offense. He motivated the students should be courageous to face any situations in their life.

He advised the freshers not to fear of any action and should not tolerate any kind of atrocities of senior students. He also outlined how the college will take stringent action against the senior student involved in ragging others. He motivated the freshers to maintain friendly relationships with the staff and senior students. Finally Dr.P.Aravinda Reddy, advised the students to be respectful to each other and have a healthy environment at all times so that their journey in the institution becomes enriching and purposeful one. He further motivated the faculty of the institution to ensure that the inculcating ethical values along with academic advancements should always remain the prime focus.

Dr.Y.Sirisha, the Anti-Ragging coordinator of the Anti-Ragging committee explained how they have displayed Anti-ragging slogans, pointers, sign-boards etc to create awareness among the students.

She mentioned that she was feeling proud to state that this institute has no case of ragging reported. The program was concluded with vote of thanks by her. Around 200 students from I, II Bpharm & Pharma D attended the program.
