Description

Our College has officially participated in the Equality Cup Inter-College Volleyball Tournament organized by Vikasa Tarangini – Yuva Vikas (JYC).

The college nominated its volleyball team following the JYC guidelines. The institution demonstrated prompt coordination by submitting team details within the stipulated time and actively engaging with event organizers.

Our Samskruti College's participation reflects its commitment to promoting sportsmanship, teamwork, and student development. The college encouraged its students to uphold discipline, follow tournament rules, and represent the institution with integrity. Their involvement strengthens inter-college bonding and highlights Samskruti College's support for youth empowerment through sports.

Objectives

- Promote Youth Development: Encourage students to actively participate in sports as part of holistic development.
- Strengthen Teamwork & Discipline: Foster cooperation, discipline, and sportsmanship among college students.
- Encourage Healthy Competition: Provide a platform for students to showcase their talent while engaging in fair competition.

- Strengthen JYC Movement: Build stronger inter-college connections through JYC (Jeeyar Youth Club) activities.
- Inculcate Responsibility & Leadership: Encourage students to take part in organizational responsibilities through JYC involvement.

Conclusion

The Inter-College Volleyball Tournament organized by Vikasa Tarangini – Yuva Vikas aims to provide an enriching sports platform for college students while fostering values such as teamwork, discipline, leadership, and integrity. Through the involvement of JYC units across various colleges, the event endeavors to unite youth under a common purpose—promoting fitness, camaraderie, and a spirit of healthy competition.

Colleges are encouraged to actively participate and contribute to making this tournament a grand success.
